VENA DEL GESSO ROMAGNOLA REGIONAL PARK

“AUGUSTO RINALDI CERONI” HERB GARDEN (RA)

Located in the Vena del Gesso Romagnola Park, this botanical garden houses over 480 species of medicinal plants used in cooking, medicine, and cosmetics since the Middle Ages, when these were processed in monastery workshops. This ancient Herb Garden, founded in 1938 and inaugurated at its current location in 1975, is a haven of peace created by Augusto Rinaldi Ceroni to teach, conserve, and cultivate medicinal, aromatic, and herbal plants. Among the fragrances and colors, visitors can experiment with plant- and flower-based recipes, create perfumes, enjoy a picnic on the lawn, and unleash their creativity through interactive workshops.

GUIDED TOUR OF THE GARDEN WITH HERBAL TEA TASTING

An immersive and engaging guided tour to discover the secrets of the Herb Garden in Casola Valsenio. Walking through fields rich in medicinal plants, participants will explore their properties, traditional uses, and modern applications. During the tour, visitors will touch, smell, and even taste edible plants and flowers, experiencing their unique aromas and flavors. They will also have the opportunity to collect plants themselves, bringing them closer to nature and its wonders.

The experience continues with a workshop on herbal teas and infusions, where participants will learn both ancient and modern preparation techniques. Each person will create their own personalized herbal tea using freshly picked herbs and flowers from the garden.

ARCHAEOLOGICAL MUSEUM OF VERUCCHIO (RN)

The Civic Archaeological Museum of Verucchio, housed within the ancient monastery of Sant'Agostino, showcases artifacts unearthed from the Villanovan necropolises (9th–7th century BC), discovered at the slopes of the Verucchio rock, now home to the medieval village. The exceptionally well-preserved tomb findings reveal a rich society, characterized by aristocratic families, whose legacy is now part of the Museum's priceless heritage. This journey back in time spans the Villanovan and Etruscan periods, bringing to life the role of warriors, the extraordinary remains of burial textiles, and the exquisite amber artifacts. The visit concludes in the Throne Room, which houses one of the most lavish burial treasures ever discovered.

TALES FROM THE AFTERLIFE: THE ARCHAEOLOGICAL MUSEUM OF VERUCCHIO

Verucchio, 8th century BC—a thriving village stands atop the hill, overseeing the Marecchia Valley. Life runs amidst sophisticated craftsmanship and prosperous agriculture. Bronze and iron defend the land, held in the hands of an elite class of aristocratic warriors. Their stories and lives have been passed down to us through their burial rituals, preserved across the millennia.

LONG THE SACRED THREAD. WOMEN AND PRIESTESSES

A fascinating and mysterious journey through the lives of high-status women in the ancient Villanovan civilization.

These women, honored with opulent burials, played a crucial role in both the economy and religious life. Through artifacts and echoes of ancient legends, we will uncover the figures of these ladies of Verucchio—masters of exquisite weaving, deeply connected to the materials provided by nature, and guardians of sacred rituals, ensuring the balance between the natural and supernatural worlds.

GUIDED TOUR WITH APERITIF

HISTORY & FLAVOR

A guided tour of the Archaeological Museum, revealing insights into ancient cuisine and communal dining practices.

From the relationship between food and morality to its connection with aesthetics and street food traditions, participants will explore how eating habits influenced food preservation techniques, including the production of Roman "ketchup"—garum.

The highlight of the tour is the unique Roman amphora with a flat bottom, produced exclusively in Forlimpopoli's kilns for transporting wine and oil. An opportunity to explore not only our millenary love for wine, but also to reflect on the ancient agricultural vocation of the lands of Romagna and the aptitude, which has remained unaltered, for its valorisation through the trade of its products.

The experience concludes with an archaeological tasting session, featuring historical recipes from ancient texts by Marcus Gavius Apicius, Cato, Columella, and other sources. This experience, curated by ArkeoGustus, brings archaeogastronomy to life, allowing visitors to taste authentic ancient dishes and explore the culinary traditions of the past.

MURDER MYSTERY APERITIF

CONVIVIUM VERITATIS, AT THE COURT OF THE ZAMPESCHI, ARTUSIAN MYSTERY

An aperitif, a role-playing game, a murder mystery party to immerse yourself in times gone by, in a story full of characters, pitfalls, challenges, and plots, set in the evocative rooms of the Archaeological Museum! A murderer is hiding among the participants: will you be able to reveal their identity? Among mosaics, amphorae, noble coats of arms, cannonballs, and the mysterious remains of the ancient cathedral, you will find yourself at the heart of an intricate mystery to solve. Three crimes to choose from, in three different eras: ancient Rome, the Renaissance, and the late 19th century. Different plots to choose from according to your tastes and interests: whether it's the world of senators, slaves, and matrons, that of monks, noblewomen, and merchants, or even the world of bourgeois salons, among writers, fallen nobles, and politicians, each offers unique emotions and guaranteed fun.

Investigate between bites, interact with the characters, and uncover the truth behind the crime by following the clues left by the murderer. An expert master will guide the investigation, while you and the other participants try to untangle the web of deceit, alliances, and suspicions. Only the most astute will discover the culprit... Will you be able to shed light on the mystery before it's too late?

Key features of the experience:

- ▶ Highlighting historical and archaeological heritage: by spending time in the museum, participants will be able to appreciate the historical artifacts on display in an informal way, without the pressure of a "traditional" guided tour.
- ▶ Encouraging gameplay and social interaction: the activity promotes collaboration, strengthening the sense of community and collective discovery.
- ▶ Immersive experience: by stepping into the shoes of characters from another era, participants will be immersed in an entertaining historical "mystery."

EXPERIENCES

FORLIMPOPOLI IN A DAY · FULL-DAY EXPERIENCE WITH THEATER WORKSHOP

Participants will discover Forlimpopoli's history and cultural treasures through a three-part itinerary: Archaeological Museum, Ordellaffa Fortress walkways and the Church of the Servants.

Whether admiring the historic center from above, with its centuries-old squares dedicated to politics and trade, or exploring the fortress halls that house the museum and its remarkable artifacts, Forlimpopoli will captivate visitors with its heritage and hidden gems.

After a morning of discovery, participants will enjoy a lunch break at a local eatery, followed by an interactive dramatization workshop in the afternoon.

With the help of professional theater facilitators, participants will be split into two groups and will perform a scripted reenactment of a slice of daily life in Ancient Rome. Each group will take turns performing while the other observes, using costumes and props for an immersive, hands-on learning experience.

This alternative approach offers a fun and engaging way to connect with history, encouraging active participation and storytelling.

DELIZIA ESTENSE OF VERGINESE (FE)

The Delizia Estense del Verginese is one of many “delizie” (pleasure residences) built by the Este family in the Ferrara region, now recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. This ancient noble retreat once belonged to Laura Dianti, who received it as a gift from her husband, Duke Alfonso I d’Este. Inside, visitors will also find the Fadieni Sepulchral Archaeological Museum, which preserves Roman artifacts from a small necropolis near the Delizia, offering insights into the daily life, economy, and social structure of a Roman family.

WHAT IF A CASTLE AT NIGHT ...

A fascinating guided tour through the castle’s halls, illuminated exclusively by candlelight.

A guide will lead visitors through the centuries-old history of the residence, sharing intriguing anecdotes and hidden secrets about its first owner and builder, Laura Dianti, the third wife of Duke Alfonso I d’Este, as well as the last families who inhabited it up until the 1970s.

The tour also includes a presentation of the museum’s archaeological collection, featuring artifacts from a 1st–2nd century AD Roman necropolis.
